

Religious Myths vs. Bible Truths

We are all guilty of following them, like the blind following the blind and ending up in a ditch. But as we search the Word and hear by the Spirit, we uncover the real truths. It is then that we can distinguish truth from religious myth, as we do here.

The following religious myths are in no particular order of importance, but rather as His Spirit has brought them to mind, with the most current on top.

Religious Myth: There are 7 Major Feast Days of the Lord.

Truth: There are 8 Major Feast Days of the Lord, and one of the ones typically mentioned is not one of the eight!

There are many “appointed Feast Days”, and there are many associated Feast Days, but only EIGHT of them are distinguished in the Word as distinct from all others.

They are distinguished as “HOLY convocations”. The others may be times of convocation or gathering together, but they are not labeled in the Word as “HOLY convocations”. “HOLY” means “set apart”, as in set apart from all the others by being extra special. One of the traditional 7-Feast Days is NOT included in the true list, and two are missing! Much of accurately understanding the Word requires a proper Biblical foundation of the 8-Feast Days. Missing this truth will result in missing the many patterns & prophetic types found here. See Lesson No. 4, “The Eight Feasts” for a list of them with full explanation from the Word.
