Word from the Lord for today.

"And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife and my children; I will not go out free: This his master shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him forever." (Ex. 21:5-6)

For those who have an ear to hear and a heart to understand, this is what we witnessed, the Lord doing yesterday.

Donald Trump has given himself over to the service of this country. In so doing, and perhaps unknowingly, he dedicated himself as a servant of Jesus Christ, our Lord and our God. We saw Donald Trump stand firm as he refused to quit and give up, even when he was tested through many trials, often facing hostile and bias judges.

Yet at the appointed time, God made him his servant forever. He used the hatred and animosity that his adversaries had planted in the mind of an evil and deranged young man, as an instrument to show forth His presence. Not with an awl, but with a bullet, He bore his servant's ear through, thus making him his servant forever. This is the drama that we all witnessed as it unfolded to the eyes of the world yesterday.

May God's Holy Spirit speak to our hearts and make us rejoice in the love and mercy of our Father Jehovah and His Son Jesus Christ, as He revealed His presence and His glory in us and among us.
