

Truth Nuggets Part 6

Millennial-Kingdom Myths (Part 2)

We saw in Part 1 that Yahshua (Jesus), will not literally return with a sword from his mouth and neither on a white horse. Instead, the sword represents the aggressive weapon of the proclamation of Truth, (Revelation 19). This Truth stems from the Word & Spirit as heard & seen in the natural realm in ALL areas of life, AND in his army of chosen overcomers (Revelation 21:7). The white horses represent the physical bodies of those who have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb, AND have become fully, faithfully submitted to their rider (Messiah in them), going as he leads.

Just as Yahshua is called the “Son of God,” so are his army soldiers called the “Sons of God,” (Revelation 14:4 & Romans 8:14). They are Messiah, Head & Body. These sons are the messengers who pull the tares to set creation free. All creation anxiously awaits their appearing, (Romans 8:19).

This brings us to our next Millennial Kingdom myth. When does the return happen? Like a birth, it begins as a gradual recognition, then suddenly is aware to all. The start of the birth, (the official beginning of the new Kingdom) was the fall of 2017. Since then, it has been building to the final stage of the birth, which is the “first resurrection,” when the overcomers, the sons of God, receive their immortal bodies. Though this world-shaking event will be evident to all, the clash over who rules continues a little longer. Revelation 11 & 12 provide this overview of the birth-timing.

The first noticeable event is 2-witnesses rising from the dead. This too is symbolic. The 2-witnesses are personified by Moses, who turned water into blood (representing the Word), and Elijah who stopped the rain (representing the Spirit). Together they testify that we are to listen to the Messiah, (Matthew 17:1-5). They are also the two olive trees that provide oil to light the two menorahs, representing the Word & Spirit as the 2-witnesses testifying to focus on the Son, who gives light to the world.

Again, in Zechariah 4:11-14 we see these two olive-tree-witnesses as the one to follow in the natural, (the king/Word), and the one to follow spiritually, (the priest/Spirit).

One witness without the other has no authority to convict. This scriptural pattern repeats, such as the two believing spies, the two who held up Moses' hands and 2-sticks that join.

This dramatic rising up to a higher level is a great awakening to truth. The Menorah of Messiah's Life is lit in a people to shed truth as a sunrise (morning star), for a new day. Hidden things get revealed. Corruption gets exposed. Tares identified to be eradicated.

This is what Satan and his corrupt world system fear. The avalanche of truth threatens his 6,000 year reign since Adam's fall. And this is why he seeks to devour this newly-born sonship company. To this end, he spews a flood of lies/deception/fake-news through his spokespeople, plus senseless fury through his agents. He fails because the sons have overcome Satan, having conquered their fallen natures by the blood of the Lamb & infilling of God's Spirit, by grace through faith. The sons operate in a higher realm spiritually, operating from the throne (authority) of the Messiah. They hear & obey the Word & Spirit, following the Messiah in their gifts & callings as he leads.

For the first time since Adam, in the fall of 2017, Jupiter (the brightest "star"), passed from the womb of the constellation Virgo, signifying the birth of a "son," (sonship company). We note that was when Trump was elected as an earthly leader, like David, for the sons to rally around to establish the new government. Trump is not our Messiah, but like Yahshua, he came first as a lamb, and returned as a lion. (...to be continued!)
