A New Beginning!

Trump visited Israel the day Hamas released the Israeli hostages, (10-13-25). During the celebration Trump wrote in the guest book, “This is ... A New Beginning.”

Little did he realize that on our Hebrew calendar, it is also “The Last Great Day,” the last of the eight Biblical Feasts of Yehovah that we are commanded to keep. This day happens to land on the 8th-day after the Feast of Tabernacles, (Hebrew “Succoth”). The message of the Last Great Day is that the final ingathering of crops has concluded, the tares have been eliminated, and the wheat has been gathered in. The long season of labor is over. This day declares the finality of one age while heralding a new beginning. Additionally, the annual reading of the Torah on each weekly Sabbath has been completed and begins with joy once again.

As with the Feasts, the number “8” announces “a new beginning.” We see this also with 8-people on Noah’s Ark to start a new beginning in a new world. Then, David was the 8th-son of Jesse, anointed to be king over Israel and raise it up to be world empire, a light to the nations, a new beginning. On calendars we note that the “eighth day” of the week is the beginning of a new week. Even in music, the 8th ascending note is the first note of the next higher scale.

As if the hostage release on the Last Great Day is not a clear enough declaration that another milestone has been reached in the Millennial Kingdom, here’s one more. October 13 was also Columbus Day, the day to remember the discovery of the New World, the territory destined to become the USA. This meant that the seeds of new hopes, new freedoms, new opportunities, new possibilities, a new country, and a new beginning with a new government had begun to grow.

On a larger scale, we are seeing this is the 8th-war ended by Trump in his first 8-months of office. The end of wars is one of many signals of the arrival of new heavens & earth (representing a new age of rulership), while the old heavens & earth pass away, heralding a noticeable shift from an age of war to an age of peace. So what exactly are the new heavens & new earth? It is not that this planet with its atmosphere will be destroyed then replaced by a newly created one any more than a new moon would be a completely different orbiting sphere. The heavens represent the spiritual realm including the spiritual beings in them, ruled by powers of darkness for 6,000 years. The earth represents the physical, natural realm. What happens in one realm affects what happens, and who rules in the other.

We watch the old, corrupt world system being dismantled while the new Kingdom of the Son (& those found in him), are taking control.

We see yet another sign. In Washington DC we witnessed a mile-long communion table on the national mall, an event called “Communion America.” It was another example of God working outside of the church system to unite believers in both personal & national repentance. At the same time there were 50 tents, one for each State, all participating in 24/7 worship and prayer for the USA, Israel & the world, concluding on 10-13-25. These events are more than coincidental. Collectively they confirm that the citizens of The Millennial Kingdom are going on the offensive. The new Kingdom Age is gaining strength, the enemy’s in panic, and it’s all becoming more obvious daily.

Celestially we have recently shifted from the 2,000 year Age of Pisces (constellation of the fish representing the church system), into the Age of Aquarius (constellation of the Messiah pouring out His Spirit upon the earth to cleanse & renew it). Yes, His Spirit has left the church system and instead sweeps the earth bringing real change for the Kingdom. We see this in changed lives, religion, culture, politics, and nations.

And in Maine? Before the end of this week a chapter of Turning Point USA begins in Maine, (Southern Maine Community Center). Meanwhile, the perpetrators of long-standing election fraud in Maine are feeling heat from the Department of Justice, Mike Lindell, and grass roots workers trained by Dr Frank.

One of many often overlooked fountains of Living Water are the Boede & Brock books. They teach truth through history through stories. Their riveting, addictive historical novels focus on Israel and also the early believers. Meanwhile Stephen King’s latest movie flopped. These trends reflect a current hunger for light, not darkness. The tide has turned!
